1. Following the institution of rationing, it is now possible to obtain gasoline and kerosene with less difficulty, but the price of these commodities has risen sharply.
2. Gasoline has risen from 26.5 lei per liter to 72 lei. Kerosene for cooking purposes has risen from 6.5 lei per liter to 10.5. Fuel oil has also been rationed, but the quantity to be allotted to individuals has not yet been announced. The highest quality of benzine has reached the official price of 102 lei per liter.
3. Effective 15 August, all oil corporations owned by the Rumanian state were placed under the control of Sovrompetrol.
